Applicant- Final Decision and Offer

Final Admission Decision

After Admissions' Committees review the applications and provide their official recommendations, applicants receive their final decision electronically via the portal.

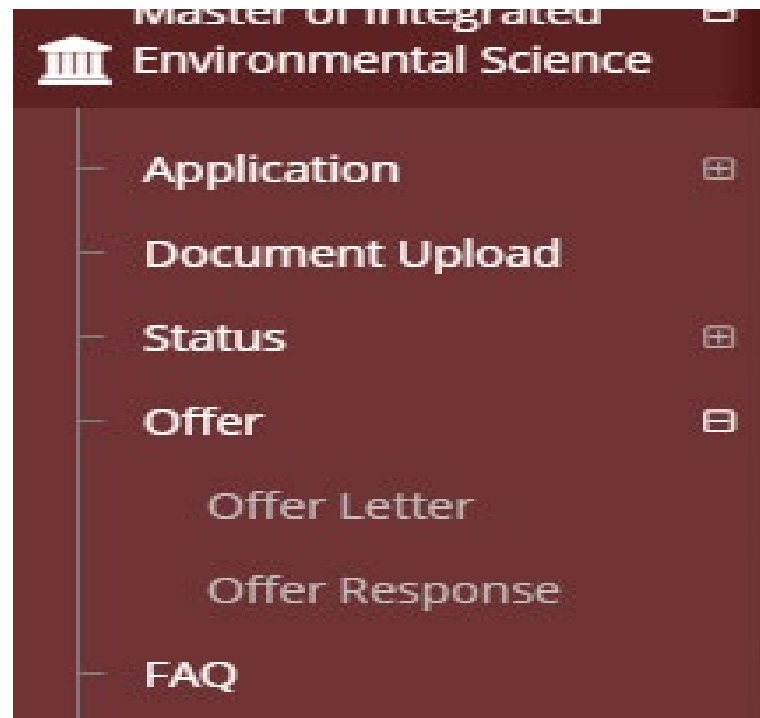

Therefore as an applicant, you should check your portal often to see your status.

Here is what happens:

- Once Final Decision is assigned, as applicant, you will have a new tab appearing in the portal called "Admissions Decision".
- When you select this tab, you will see the Final Decision.
 1. If you were offered admission, you will see under Offer subtab the Offer Letter for the specific program/location.
 - Go and click on the letter to see and read your Admissions Offer Letter.
 2. You will also have a subtab called "Offer Response" that you need to select & complete.
 - Once you select a decision (Accept or Decline), your application' status will automatically be updated in the portal. Admissions office will then see your offer response.
- If you were denied admission, you will also see the Deny tab with the denial letter.

Applicant's View: Final Decision and Offer

- Final Decision: Offer and Applicant's Response

Applicant's Response to Admissions Offer

- Select either one of the options (Accept or Decline) by putting a check mark next to your response and submit.
- See sample response in screenshot below.
